Players of Week

Jimmy Chandler (above) is "Back of the Week" for ACHS says Coach Jerry Robinson. That 64 yards gained during the R-Henry Game with 10 carries and a 6.4 yard average per carry has more than a little to do with the title and the free dinner at Maude's, well earned by Jimmy. Billy Guthrie, tackle, plays defensive and offensive positions, says Robinson, and "showed excellent passing and rushing all night long." Dinner at Maude's for him, too, as "Lineman of the Week."

Wanted: Volunteers

The Central Virginia Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association is sponsoring an all-out "stuffing party" at the Farmville Armory on Thurs., Sept. 23, from 9:30 a. m. to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Emma G. Anthony, Executive Director, said, "We need as many volunteers as we can get to help us prepare 50,000 letters for our Christmas Seal Campaign this year." She also said, "I hope those who can stay all day will bring a sandwich and those who cannot spare that much time will come for an hour or so. Drinks and doughnuts will be served."

Dr. Anthony J. Monoz, President of the Association, said, "I urge all citizens to answer our plea for help. Tuberculosis is far from being licked, and a recent report from the Virginia Department of Health substantiates this fact. In the area served by this Association, the number of cases of TB under supervision are as follows:" Amelia County 3; Amherst County, 38; Appomattox County, 10; Buckingham County, 25; Campbell County, 32; Charlotte County, 30; Cumberland County, 14; Lunenburg County, 21; Nottoway County, 34; Powhatan County, 13; Prince Edward County, 54; city of Lynchburg, 85. AREA TOTAL 359.

If you cannot get to the Armory, you will be welcome to come to the office of the Association any day during the week, Monday - Friday, from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p.m., 105 High St., Farmville, Va., Phone: 392-5258. We can always use good volunteers.

Jordan Baptist

Regular preaching services will be held this Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Sunday evening at 7:00 the Men's Club is sponsoring a special program.

Our prayers and best wishes go out to all our members and neighbors who are in the hospital. We pray that God may grant you a speedy recovery.

Webbs Attend Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Webb of Appomattox, Va., were among the thousands of tire dealers who attended the 51st Annual Convention and Trade Show of the National Tire Dealers and Retreaders Association, Inc. (NTDRA) in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Independent tire dealders and retreaders from across the nation and around the world assembled in Cincinnati for the largest tire industry show in the Nation. More than 450 exhibit booths were featured at the NTDRA Trade Show, expected to be the largest in the history of the Show.

Theme of the 51st NTDRA Convention and Trade Show was "Meeting the Needs of Consumer Service," and various presentations and panel discussions developed the theme.

The impressive list of speakers and panels at the Convention discussed government activities, technological advances, new merchandising and advertising ideas, and many other subjects of interest to tire dealers and retreaders.

Ladies attending the Convention had their own program especially designed for them.

The Convention ran from September 11-15, 1971.
